What we need

Torphins Golf Club will be a “controller” of the personal information that you provide to us in this form, unless otherwise stated.

When you register as a member of Torphins Golf Club or renew your membership (including if you are registering or renewing on behalf of a child under the age of 18), we will ask you for the following personal information:

- contact details – name, address, email address, phone number and date of birth;
- membership criteria / category – parent, volunteer;
- payment details if required

Why we need your personal information – contractual purposes

We need to collect our members’ and customers personal information so that we can manage your relationship with us. We will use our members’ personal information to:

- provide you with core member services, including, insurance, payment schemes, licensing and PVG checks;
- set up your online membership account and administer your account online; and
- send you membership communications by post or email in relation to essential membership services, including but not limited to, membership renewals and information on membership benefits, BRS online booking and Club V1 handicapping.
- register your membership with Scottish Golf

If you do not provide us with all of the personal information that we need to collect then this may affect our ability to offer the above membership services and benefits.

Why we need your personal information – legitimate purposes

We also process our members’ personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to:

- promote and encourage participation in the sport of Golf and Foot Golf by sending members’ communications and booking information for upcoming competitions and events. Our competitions and events may be filmed or photographed and your personal information may also be used in images captured from our competitions and events, which we use for promotional, education and development purposes;

- provide competition in the sport of Golf by accepting and managing entries for our competitions and checking your personal information to ensure you are entered into the correct category;
- develop and maintain our members' qualifications, including sending email communications to members to inform you of upcoming events and meetings, renewal requirements and verify that you have completed any mandatory training and PVG / child protection requirements; and
- respond to and communicate with members regarding your questions, comments, support needs or complaints, concerns or allegations. We will use your personal information to investigate your complaint, suspend membership and take disciplinary action where appropriate.

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes. If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us at Torphins Golf Club, Bog Road, Torphins, AB31 4JU. If we agree and comply with your objection, this may affect our ability to undertake the tasks above for the benefit of you as a member.

Why we need your personal information – legal obligations

We are under a legal obligation to process certain personal information relating to our members for the purposes of complying with our obligations under the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 to check that our coaches and volunteers are able to undertake regulated work with children and vulnerable adults.

Other uses of your personal information

We may ask you if we can process your personal information for additional purposes. Where we do so, we will provide you with an additional privacy notice with information on how we will use your information for these additional purposes.

Who we share your personal information with

We may be required to share personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities and organisations to comply with statutory obligations. Such organisations include the Health & Safety Executive, Disclosure Scotland, and Police Scotland for the purposes of safeguarding children.

We may also share personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice.

We may also share some personal information with BRS (online booking system) and Club V1 for handicapping purposes.

As an affiliated club of Scottish Golf, we are required to ensure that all of our members are registered with Scottish Golf as a condition of affiliation. We will share your name and membership category with Scottish Golf who will become a controller of your personal information when they receive it.

Scottish Golf's privacy notice explains how they use your personal information and can be accessed here Scottish Golf Privacy Policy

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is stored on our electronic filing system and accessed by secure passwords by the Club Secretary and Treasurer. This data can be shared with committee members for the purposes set out above.

How long we keep your personal information

We will only keep your personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with membership services. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and possibly delete your personal information where you have not renewed your membership with us for four years.

Your rights

Your rights in relation to your personal information are:

- you have a right to request access to the personal information that we hold about you by making a “subject access request”;
- if you believe that any of your personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, you have a right to request that we correct or complete your personal information;

you have a right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal information for specific purposes; and

- if you wish us to delete your personal information, you may request that we do so.
- Any requests received by Torphins Golf Club will be considered under applicable data protection legislation. If you remain dissatisfied, you have a right to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office at www.ico.org.uk

You can exercise any of the following rights by writing to us at Torphins Golf Club, Bog Road, Torphins, AB31 4JU.
